RACE: Regatta Centre Criterium

32 degrees when racing began with unpredictable wind conditions. Still plenty of punters turned up and by all counts another good night of racing.

The usual suspects provided the action but in the end it was a bunch sprint and the big boys came out to play. There were a few Percys in there yelling their heads off at all and sundry, not sure what all that was about but it sounded rather jovial from the back of the bunch. Another World Championship at the Regatta Centre no doubt.
